

May 22, 2020

Commonwealth Policy Center
Attn: Mr. Ben Taylor
PO Box 4172
Frankfort, KY 40604-4172

Dear 7th Supreme Court District Voters,

My name is Bob Conley and I am running to be your voice on the Kentucky Supreme Court.

I'm prepared to serve on the state's highest court on day one following my 25 years of experience as a trial judge. The people of Greenup and Lewis Counties chose me as their District Judge for 12 years followed by 13 years as their Circuit Judge. I want to take these experiences and Eastern Kentucky values to Frankfort to serve on the Kentucky Supreme Court.

Just as I have done at the lower court levels, I'll uphold your constitutional rights and will continue to work with law enforcement to keep our communities safe. I'm dedicated to being open-minded & fair to all in judicial decisions. I believe that every life has value, and every person matters. The Kentucky Right to Life Association has recommended my candidacy.

I grew up in Greenup County the son of a railroader and a homemaker. Like many other Kentuckians, my parents and community instilled in me the values of respect, hard work, and honesty. I paid for my education while working summers at Armco Steel in Ashland as a member of the United Steelworkers.

I was married to my late wife Melanie for 28 years and I'm a proud dad of Katie and Brian. I'm a longtime member of Bridges Christian Church in Russell where I've served in many roles including Elder, Deacon, Sunday School Teacher, and Bible Study Leader.

I graduated from Russell High School in Greenup County in 1976 before getting a bachelor's from the University of Kentucky in 1981 and my law degree from Salmon P. Chase College of Law at Northern Kentucky University in 1984. Prior to joining the bench, I practiced law as an attorney working for McKenzie, Woolery, & Emrick PSC and Addington Mining & Resources, Inc.

I thank you for taking the time to learn more about me. You can learn more about my candidacy online at ConleyForSupremeCourt.com or follow me on Facebook at Facebook.com/JudgeConley.

Sincerely,

Judge Bob Conley
Candidate for Kentucky Supreme Court