² “I will not support any legislation that discriminates against someone because of who they love, or that allows anyone to hide behind their faith to discriminate against this community or that supports the idea of conversion therapy. If a business is a public business, then it must serve all of the public... Your right to believe as you wish and practice the faith you wish extends only so far as until it impinges on the personal and civil rights of another person.” Source: SteveJonesForKY.com.
